

Welcome to Australian Finance Centre!

Australian Finance Centre is one of Australia's most experienced 'Mortgage Brokers'. With mortgage management facilities and a panel of lenders with over 400 products, it is our objective to research these loans to identify which mortgage product is the right one for you. If its mortgage finance you need... "We Got It".

Great Mortgage Rates

We do not believe in gimmick rates which lure you into a false security, we seek to the short and long term objectives of your needs and cater mortgage finance aligned with you, not our lenders. It is not the interest rate you pay, but the total interest repaid which is the key factor.

After a thorough qualification of your situation, we will guarantee that we will find you the best loan to suit your needs. Click here for more information.

Debt Consolidation - How Much Could You Save?

Australian Finance Centre is proud of our ability to assist our clients with solutions regardless of your financial situation. Whether you are a high or low income earner, we all at some point go through tough times in our lives.

If your current provider said no, that does not mean no. We are able to source mortgage finance from both bank and non-bank providers. If you are finding that debt is starting to get to much for you please contact us before it gets too late.

To start. Available below is a downloadable 'savings calculator' that calculates your current debt levels and provides a guide to how much money you will be saving per month when refinancing. Simply complete and email/post back to us for one of our personal loan managers view your situation.

Lo Doc Mortgage Loans

"Lo Doc Loans" are exactly what the title suggests... they are loans which require lo documents in order to attain them! These types of loans are designed specifically for self-employed borrowers in particular; however the loan can also be used for other applicants, including businesses to attain further funds.

In comparison to standard home loans, Lo Doc Loans require the applicant to simply sign a form stating their income, instead on providing tax returns or extensive financial statements. Click here for more information.

Free Mortgage Health Check

Your mortgage on your property(s) is one of the biggest debts you have to service; therefore, it is imperative that a regular health check is carried out to ensure that your current mortgage product is best suited to you.

Regardless of how long you have been in your current mortgage facility, it does not mean the product is the right one for you. Remember it is not the interest rate you pay but the total interest you end up paying on your mortgage that counts. Click here for more information.

Mortgage Structuring to Make Investments

If you have been thinking of investing or, extending your investment portfolio, now is a great time to do it. Recent environmental changes ensure that the 'rate of return' of investments can favour investors to invest in the Australian markets.

Whether you are seeking to invest in property, shares or other, here at Australian Finance Centre, we offer extensive mortgage and investment solutions to cater for the most complex of simple financial plans. Click here for more information.

Preferred Broker Award = 3 Day Approval Guarantee for our Clients

Australian Finance Centre has been recognised by major lenders in Australia as a preferred mortgage broker. This means that when our clients seek mortgage finance through us, we can guarantee you we can give you an approval notice within 3 working days.

With some lenders taking up to seven business days to even assess mortgage files, this 'preferred status' is a key point of difference against other financial institutions. No more waiting on other lenders to make a decision, click here to apply online.
